Building The Future Of The Lord's Church
2024 Cedar Grove Lecture Day

For Our Fourth Annual Lecture Day, We Are Thrilled To Emphasize To Many Talented, Faithful Servants In The Church Today – Those Young In Age But Devoted Workers To Our Lord!

Mark Your Calendars - April 13th Plan To Be A Part Of This Wonderful Day

This is our last highlight one of those who will (Lord willing) speak, singing, read Scripture and lead us in prayer during our Lecture Day at the church at Cedar Grove. ONE WEEK AWAY – NEXT SATURDAY!

Coell Doggett

Coell Doggett is an 13 year old (in the 7th grade at Rogersville school in Giles County) and worships at the First Baptist congregation in Pulaski, Tennessee. His parents are Coel and Mary Lauren Doggett. Clay serves as a State Representative in the state of Tennessee. Mary Lauren is a nurse.

Coell will speak on the topic “Speak Our Truth” (a text from Mark 16:15) during this special day service. We know it will challenge us to serve our Lord faithfully. Coell will also lead a prayer, read Scripture and lead us in prayer.

Coell has spoken at an event in Lawrenceburg and multiple times at the church at Cedar Grove (Fairview).

Mark Your Calendars - April 13th Plan To Be A Part Of This Wonderful Day

We are getting more EXCITED and LOOK FORWARD to this SATURDAY - It is THIS COMING SATURDAY – April 13th - at the church at Cedar Grove (Rogersville, AL). FIFTEEN TALENTED YOUNG MEN will direct the entire sessions for our 4th Annual Lecture Day. The emphasis and theme is “Building The Lord's Church For The Future”. It will be clear that the future of the Lord's church is in good hands and secure for holding to the faithful will of our Father.
